

Voices for Change:

Family Farmers Share Their Struggle

Noon-1pm

Wednesday, April 19th

Strickler Hall Auditorium

University of Louisville

Belknap Campus

Please join us for a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity!

Come hear about the struggle and activism of two family farmers who live across the world from each other. Mr. Ivor Chodkowski, an urban farmer in Louisville and the former President of the Community Farm Alliance and Mr. Seydou Coulibaly, a cotton farmer that has flown in from Mali for only the week of April 19th will discuss the WTO, US subsidies and farming, and how these global trends effect our local realities. Come find out how you can become active on these issues!

Learn how the upcoming US Farm Bill will have a direct and personal impact on both these men. Please join us for a free afternoon event!

Voices for Change:

Family Farmers Share Their Struggle

6-7pm

Wednesday, April 19th

University of Kentucky, Lexington

Student Center, Room 228

Please join us for a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity!

Come hear about the difficulties and successes of farmers who live across the world from each other. Mr. Seydou Coulibaly, a cotton farmer that has flown in from Mali for only the week of April 19th and a representative from the Community Farm Alliance will discuss the impacts of the WTO and agricultural policy on family farmers.

Learn how the upcoming US Farm Bill will have a direct and personal impact on farmers from Kentucky to West Africa, and learn about the new agricultural system CFA is working to create in Kentucky. Please join us for a free evening event!

